Project Title	Kyrgyz Republic: Regional Relations and Security Research Assistants
Project Summary	Research and report on developments in the Kyrgyz Republic's foreign relations and regional security issues, including extremism/terrorism.
Country	Krygyzstan

Project Description

Embassy Bishkek's Political/Economic Section is looking for up to four Virtual Interns to conduct research on developments related to the external relations of the Kyrgyz Republic and regional security issues, particularly related to extremism and terrorism.

Interns would be assigned both long-term research projects (i.e. creation and maintenance of event trackers, in-depth open source research, etc.), or short-term spot reports on breaking events. Russian or Kyrgyz language ability is a plus, but is not required.
